Course title	Politics of Immigration
Instructional Language	English
Programs that can take the course	All
Course Type	Elective
Course Level	Undergraduate
ECTS Credit	6
Prerequisites	None
Course Content	In this class, we examine why conflicts about migration arise and how they are resolved or not, via cooperation among states around the world and within conflicting interests within the states.
The Aim of the Course	The aim of this course is not to weigh in on any side of any particular debate, but to give students the analytical tools with which to critically compare and contrast the relevant issues, actors, political institutions, and political processes that form the basis of immigration-related policy debates in a variety of different national contexts
Course Outcomes	After the course, the students are expected to intellectually problematize socio-political concepts in everyday life and make use of them in different theoretical perspectives.
