

Mission of the Department of International Entrepreneurship (UGI)

The mission of the Department of International Entrepreneurship is to educate entrepreneurial professionals who can integrate into the global business environment, think analytically, and develop innovative and sustainable solutions; and to contribute to society and the economy through research and social responsibility, thereby supporting the construction of a fair and equitable future.